Founders of Boy Scouts and Girl Guides Organizations Celebrate Birthday Anniversary

Lord and Lady Baden Powell, Chiefs of the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides, respectively, celebrate the anniversary of their birthdays, Thursday, February 22. Congratulations and good wishes will be sent from all parts of the world to the beloved Chiefs of these sterling organizations.

It is understood that Lord Baden Powell, who is now in his seventy-seventh year, is planning a trip to visit his Scouts and Guides in various parts of the world, which will take him to the City of Calgary in the autumn of this year.

The long spell of moderate temperatures ended Monday night when zero was registered. Tuesday and Wednesday it ranged between 15 above and 12 below zero.

IN MEMORIAM

ODDEN—In Loving Memory of Buddy, who passed away on February 24, 1931.

God gently touched him and he slept so softly... as the dew; The gates of heaven opened wide to let our loved one through. Sadly missed by Mother, Father, Iona and Ralph.

games were very closely contested and a number were only decided by the last rock played.

The McCoy rink (Hanna) which included Art Wade, Chas. Neff and His Worship the Mayor of Hanna, himself, (Mr. I. F. Shacker) won the grand challenge and were fourth in the citizens event. Whitlock, piloting J. J. Purcell, Dr. Kerr and J. Shields, suffered his only defeat at the hands of McCoy and his (Concluded on page 4.)

crew, which loss kept him out of the jewellery in the grand challenge. George Fowler, skipping the Green rink from Lanfne (Oh, very well, if you prefer it—the Bob Green rink), missed the broom and fame in one end in a game against Whitlock, when he had the opportunity to score an "eight" Every-one was "pulling" for George to make the shot, even Whitlock himself...but it is a slippery game and George had to be content with a six.

Allan Sharp, who lost to Bishop going into the fours of the grand challenge (tie coming home) did well in the citizens event, defeating the McCoy rink in the fours to reach the finals. "Ty Cobb" Charbonneau turned in a great game for his skip in this round.

The Bishop rink, skipped by Duane Bishop, reached the finals of the grand challenge by consistent exhibitions of the draw shot game. They lost their first game in the citizens event to the old veteran curler "Father" Dial.

The score by ends in the final games, was;

Grand Challenge

McCoy 10030 10 01 10 1—8
Bishop 01102 01 10 01 0—7

Citizens Event

Whitlock.. 32001220203x—15
